

IoSCM is the first international institute to represent the interests of the wider supply chain. Our aim is to improve the industry by setting standards and promoting best practice through high-quality training and qualifications, professional and corporate memberships and the formation of value-adding partnerships with leading organisations from across the global ever expanding supply chain.

Dedicated to supporting and developing individuals, businesses and the profession as a whole, IoSCM offer a range of services and products with the main aim of creating a better future for the supply chain and those who work within it.

Through our industry-leading qualifications and membership benefits, we equip those in the field with the knowledge, skills and capability to enrich their career. Consequently, advancing the supply chain through improved performance.

As an institute, we're passionate about representing the wider supply chain by setting quality standards through our courses and promoting best practice through the publication of our resources.

Working closely with SFEDI® and the National Occupational Standards \(NOS\), we constantly research and refine the methods and practices we endorse to ensure we're meeting the requirements of our fast-paced, innovative industry.

We believe the success of any business is inextricably linked to the performance of their supply chain. In order for a business to be more competitive and profitable, it needs to streamline its systems and reduce the time taken to turn orders into profit.

The global network of IoSCM professionals include the Institute team, our partners, The IoSCM Expert Network, Corporate members and thousands of individual members who are at varying stages of their careers across the supply chain.

As the world's largest supply chain industry, we understand that unity across the industry is needed for us to drive positive and continuous improvements, to create a sustainable future for our businesses, the economy and the environment.

To achieve this, members of the IoSCM are requested to uphold this code and to seek commitment to it by all those with whom they engage in their professional practice.

Members are expected to encourage their organisation to adopt the highest standards of training, personal development and career progression for their colleagues.
